RAYLEIGH TOWN COUNCIL'S ANNUAL TOWN MEETING 25th April 2018

Rayleigh Town Council held the Annual Town Meeting at The Sweyne Park School last night under the Chairmanship of Town Council Chairman Councillor Mrs Carol Pavelin. Over 220 local residents attended the meeting, which was headed up by guest speaker The Venerable Mike Lodge, Archdeacon of Southend.

After the formalities Chairman Councillor Mrs Carol Pavelin presented over thirty awards, certificates and prizes to the young and not so young, for able bodied, disabled and special needs, in numerous categories for sports and high achievement. The Easter Egg competition winners, Bailey Wright, Ross Thurgood and Olivia Jenkins were presented with "Golden Eggs", Primary School Quiz Winners, Rayleigh Primary and Individual pupil, Rachel Whitworth from Grove Wood School were also awarded prizes.

The Chairman's Award was presented to Mrs Joan Crick, recognising all her work as a link between Rayleigh Town Council, Holy Trinity Church and The Royal British Legion to ensure the smooth running of Remembrance Day. The Citizen of the Year Award was presented to Elie-Mai Scrivens, who showed care, consideration and maturity when she alerted neighbours when a resident on her paper round failed to respond to her morning call to deliver his newspaper due to illness.
