

Extremist Ideology Workshops

by Me and You Education

For Professionals and Service Delivery workers in Castle Point and Rochford

Half Day :

Wednesday 9th January 2019

9:30—12:30 or 13:30 to 16:30

Two Approaches - One Voice

Venue; Freight House, Bradley Way, Rochford. SS4 1BU

Target group

Professionals and service delivery workers who want to understand more about how children, young people or vulnerable adults are radicalised and how to safeguard them.

For further information and to book a place contact:

communitysafety@rochford.gov.uk or csp@castlepoint.gov.uk

PTO for programme

Programme

Welcome and introductions

Prevent:

What it is and what it isn't

Prevent Duty, Counter Terrorism & Security Act 2015

The Risk

Far right extremism and Islamist extremism in action

Difference between far right and far right extremism

Signs and Symbols

Signs and symbols on the far right

Mistaken identity with Islam and Islamism

The Ideology of extremism

Far Right & Islamism: The theory and its counter narrative

Two sides of the same coin? A reflective conversation

Radicalisation

Drivers and recruitment into various groups.

Your role and the referral mechanism

Close

Access to Freight House

Car—parking is in Freight House car park (don't use station car park both use same access) there is a charge of £3.30 for up to 4hrs

Train—Rochford Station is next door to venue (Southend Victoria to London Liverpool Street line)

Bus services—the 7 and 8 both come into Rochford town which is a short walk from Freight House.